

Peter Ellsmore & Associates operate from modern offices in the Wollongong CBD and supply the following services to clients in the industrial, mining and construction industries.

- Engineering – various disciplines
- Drafting – various disciplines

MECHANICAL STRUCTURAL DESIGNER

With continuing strong demand for our services an opportunities exists to join our design team supporting our clients from one of our Illawarra offices. The positions are supporting one of our clients in significant capital projects.

To succeed in this position, you will need to demonstrate;

- Relevant technical qualifications.
- Significant experience with Inventor 3D modelling and production of drawings is essential, ideally including Vault.
- Significant AutoCAD experience
- Excellent knowledge of mechanical, structural and heavy plate work design
- Able to prepare drawings & contribute to the design of
 - General heavy industrial equipment.
 - Steel processing lines.
 - Mechanical & materials handling equipment, including but not limited to conveyors, hopper, chutes, material transfer systems.
 - Steel structures.
 - Plant Layouts.
- Design experience associated with steel production, iron ore, coal, or other related industries.
- Minimum 5-10 years relevant industry experience.
- Ability to work with direction and supervision from engineer.
- Familiarity with relevant Australian Standards.
- Excellent communication skills.

This position is offered to current Australian residents as a permanent or contract role with opportunities for Employee Share Ownership and a great working environment.

Only those applicants short listed will be contacted.

Confidential enquiries and further information may be obtained by contacting Peter Harris on 02 42535611

Please send applications to pea.wollongong@ellsmore.com.au